The University of Arkansas at Monticello prohibits pets in all University housing, including all residence halls, student apartments, faculty/staff apartments and houses. Excluded from this policy are fish and service animals. The need for service animals must be documented by two separate physicians and then meet the acceptance of the University.