

Overview of unlocking your account when you know the password but have locked yourself out:

Click Forgot Password button

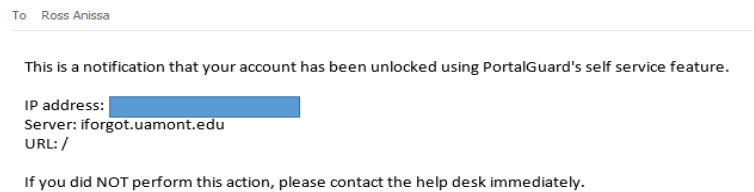

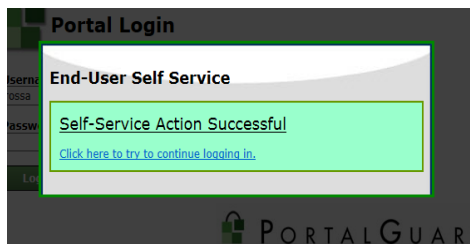

Make sure the Unlock Account action is selected and click continue

You'll receive a text on the number you registered. Enter the code in the One-Time Password blank.

After entering the code and clicking continue button the account was unlocked and ready for use.

Email was also received stating the account had been unlocked.